

Snapshot

---

This will create a new snapshot of your session as it is currently in the editor. A snapshot is no different from a session itself, but will share all the audio and data files of the session, and can be created at any time. This is also how you would save a session as a new file so as to not overwrite the original session file.