

Save Template

This will save the current state of the editor without any audio files or automation as a Template. A template can then be used to create a new session with the exact same track or bus count with plugins preloaded.